

Bold Ideas, Better Futures

Build your transferrable skills and researcher mindset through our Bold Ideas, Better Futures Module. Engage with big ideas, build a better future for yourself and prepare for a professional career that contributes to a better future for others.

Every three months, we explore a contemporary or emerging issue, giving you the opportunity to develop and apply research knowledge, build your researcher profile and develop your communication, leadership, project management, collaboration skills and more alongside candidates from a wide range of disciplines.
